SUMMARY OF THE CASE

The South Carolina State Board of Education (State Board) considered this matter on October 12, 2004. On June 21, 2004, the State Department of Education (Department) sent Ms. Rebecca D. Doyel a notice of her right to a due process hearing regarding the possible suspension of her South Carolina educator certificate by certified mail, return receipt requested, delivery restricted to addressee and regular mail. Ms. Doyel received this notice as evidenced by a signed postal receipt. She did not request a hearing within the time frame specified within the notice letter. After considering the evidence presented by the Department, the State Board voted to suspend Ms. Doyel's certificate until she repays her outstanding loan with the State of South Carolina obtained through the Center for Teacher Education, Recruitment, Retention and Advancement (CERRA).

FINDINGS OF FACT

Ms. Doyel holds a valid certificate, with over eight years of teaching experience. She was under contract with the Charleston School District (District) for the 2003-2004 school year. On August 28, 2000, Ms. Doyel signed a promissory note with the State of South Carolina to obtain a loan of $2300 to pay for the costs of applying for certification from the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards (NBPTS). One of the terms of that agreement was that Ms. Doyel agreed to repay the $300 non-refundable application fee if she withdrew from the NBPTS application process prior to the submission of the required portfolio. Ms. Doyel did withdraw prior to that date and has not repaid the $300. CERRA and the State Department of Education sent several letters to Ms. Doyel informing her that the $300 was now due and of the consequences for failing to repay the amount due.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The State Board may suspend the certificate of any person for unprofessional conduct. S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-160 (2004); 24 S.C. Code Regs. 43-58 (1992). The State Board finds that there is substantial evidence supporting its decision to suspend Ms. Doyel's certificate # 167984, from the date of this Order until she has satisfied her financial obligation in the amount of $300 to the State of South Carolina, as established in the loan agreement referenced above. At the end of the suspension period, if Ms. Doyel wishes to have her certificate reinstated, she may make a written request for reinstatement to the Office of Teacher Certification of the Department of Education.
